

QING PALACE
满殿中菜馆

Encapsulating the spirit and opulence of ancient Chinese imperial dining.

Masterchef that capture and create a delicate balance of flavours from the regions of Szechuan, Guangdong and Fuzhou.

The five-clawed imperial dragon dancing through a bank of clouds In harmony with the bat, the harbinger of all good things.

Ubiquitous, peaches, the symbol of longevity and pomegranates signifying abundance of progeny. All bleeding with intricate rose-wood carvings, silk lanterns and antique furniture.

Travel back in this time to when dining in imperial grandeur was a privilege accorded only to the selected few.

Fine Dining in Grand Imperial Style
